

The Modern Art of F&B Up-selling

5 Nov 2026 | RM1,500 / pax | 1-day

HRD Corp Prog
No 10001651940

A small shift in service behaviour can produce a disproportionate commercial impact in today's competitive Food and Beverage (F&B) landscape. Maximising revenue per guest is essential for profitability. Traditional, transactional up-selling techniques often feel pushy, and this has led to hesitancy among service staff and missed opportunities for the business.

This 1-day compressed training workshop distils the most critical elements of effective F&B up-selling into a focused, practical learning experience. The programme reframes up-selling as a consultative, guest-centric service skill, where recommendations are driven by understanding guest needs, preferences, and dining occasions, rather than sales pressure.

Participants are equipped with the essential mindset, and contemporary recommendation language required to make confident, authentic suggestions that guests value. Designed for immediate application, this programme enables F&B professionals to increase average spend per guest while enhancing trust, satisfaction, and repeat business, all within a single day.

Who should attend: Food & Beverage Professionals - Restaurant waiters, waitress, hostess, captain, supervisors, managers, owners, operation and catering teams and all restaurateurs.

Learning Objectives - By the end of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Shift their mindset from transactional selling to experiential value-building.
- Master menu knowledge to articulate compelling stories about F&B offerings.
- Apply sophisticated verbal techniques to make seamless recommendations.
- Identify guest types and occasions to tailor suggestions effectively.
- Utilise modern technology to guide guest choices and up-sell or cross-sell.
- Handle objections gracefully and maintain a positive guest relationship.

Optional:

Participants are encouraged to bring their outlet's menu.
